VI. New Business

- a. Sensory Friendly Performance and Event Planning: Jeannene Bragg presented the Youth Commission with three different sensory friendly performance options. The Youth Commission got to see videos of the three options too. These included:
- a. Big Bubble Circus – A clown performance, $500
 - b. Swallow Hill – participatory music performance, $500
 - c. Bettman and Halpin – music duo (concert), $2000

The Commission discussed the partnership opportunities for each of the options and determined that they liked the flexibility of Swallow Hill the best. Jeannene is going to connect with Swallow Hill and get input from their music therapist to help plan a performance that would suit our intended audience. Youth Commissioners also talked about activities that would complement the performance, like a make your own musical instrument station, and photo booth.
